

Carpe diem – seize the day! In a world marked by selfishness and egotism, a world that is more and more losing its moral stability, many people long for love, hope and a moment of peace, warmth and security. In his touching and personal texts, Peter Bachér fills his readers with new courage to savor life to the full in each and every moment in spite of the mad rush of everyday life, in spite of all doubts and uncertainties. This is how one comes to realize that life is worth living and keeping.

→ Moving and touching; The author of bestsellers sends us a clear message to value those things that really matter in life

Peter Bachér was born in Rostock on May 11, 1927. He is the great-grandson of Theodor Storm, was the editor-in-chief of »Bild am Sonntag« and editor of »Hoerzu«. For many years, he has written much-noticed columns for »Welt am Sonntag« that title »Today is Sunday«. The author is married, has two children and lives in Munich. His bestseller »Love Is Everything« was published by LangenMüller in 2006.

Peter Bachér

LIVE NOW!

approx. 350 pages, 11.8 x 19.2 cm

hard cover with dust jacket

ISBN 978-3-7844-3090-40-5

BACKLIST

Peter Bachér: LIVE NOW!
1 CD, ISBN 978-3-7844-4124-5
LangenMüller | Audiobook

3rd edition

LOVE IS EVERYTHING
160 pages
ISBN 978-3-7844-3036-5

»Peter Bachér entreats us with great insistence that we would lose our life if we neglected attentiveness, the ability to be touched as well as love and affection in everyday life.«

Marianne von Weizsaecker

USPs:

- The new title of our best-selling author
- The perfect gift
- Encouraging poems about the importance of life