

Neo-liberalism turned out to be a corrupt and degenerate spin off from the free market economy and a travesty of true liberalism. Far from bringing people prosperity, it lead to abject poverty. The manipulation and trickery mired entire nations in a state of total dependence, humiliation, destitution and poverty. Those who reap the benefits are a dishonest pseudo-elite, their master that voracious gangster – capitalism.

→If the money supply is increased [artificially] without being underpinned by economic activity the global economy will be destroyed.

Wolfgang Caspart, born in 1946, studied psychology, business administration, philosophy and biology in Vienna and Salzburg. A new interpreter of idealism, he wrote the »Manual of Practical Idealism« and »The Idealistic Philosophy of the Social Sciences«. He is currently working on an assessment of flawed developments in the realms of sociology and politics.
