

Goddesses, wise women, seers – they were all once an integral part of our western culture. Luisa Francia rescues them from the past and depicts the female universe of Norse myths. How did these women live, what was sacred to them, what rituals did they celebrate? We meet goddesses, female warriors, and women who were the weavers of fate's loom. We are immersed in dark woods, connected spiritually with nature and so, at last, we can get in touch with our elemental female force, enabling us to access the source of our power as women once again.

→Rediscovering our female roots: how did women live in the time of the Celts and Germanic tribes?

Luisa Francia is an author, an artist, an expert on sorcery, a traveler; she has an adult daughter, speaks five languages and has published more than 30 books, some of which became bestsellers. She keeps a web-log www.salamandra.de. Her favorite concern is the re-enchantment of the world.

Luisa Francia

THE GODDESS IN A DRESS OF FEATHERS

The female universe of the Celts and Germanic tribes
 Approx. 240 pages, 12,8 x 21,0 cm
 Hard cover with dust jacket
 ISBN 978-3-485-01305-5

WHERE GHOSTS LIVE
 ISBN 978-3-485-00900-3

HAVING GOOD HUNCHES
 ISBN 978-3-485-00958-4

THE MAGIC OF SOCCER
 ISBN 978-3-485-01074-0

WITCHES' BROOM AND
 MAGIC PLANTS
 ISBN 978-3-485-01041-2

KUBABA'S POMEGRANATE
 ISBN 978-3-485-01131-0

THE MAGIC OF ARRIVING
 ISBN 978-3-485-00837-2

THE MAGIC ART OF
 CALLING ONE'S FORTUNE
 ISBN 978-3-485-01011-5

THE LOWER HEAVEN
 ISBN 978-3-485-00813-6

THE MAGIC COOKBOOK
 ISBN 978-3-485-01097-9

SHIELDED, PROTECTED,
 SAFE AND SECURE
 ISBN 978-3-485-01104-4