

Who was Judas Iscariot? Was he the archetype of the real rogue or the closest friend and confidante of Jesus? The closest friend and confidante – at least this is claimed by the Gospel of Judas. For 1800 years, it was believed to be lost; its rediscovery was a sensation. Monika Hauf provides the historical and psychological background necessary to understand this unique work. She presents the 2000 year old history of its reception and explains why Early Fathers of the Church like Irenaeus (second century) crossed themselves whenever the Gospel of Judas was mentioned. Will it turn the Passions Story upside down?

→Astounding statements on the Gospel of Judas and a new psychological interpretation about the person of Judas

Monika Hauf was born in 1959; she studied Catholic theology. For many years, she has occupied herself with the extraordinary aspects of Christianity. She has already published several successful non-fiction books on the issue. Published by LangenMüller »Jacob's Path« and »Ways Leading to the Holy Grail«.

USPs: →A profound surgery
 →The truth behind the Gospel of Luke
 →A retrospect of 2000 years

Monika Hauf

JUDAS ISCARIOT: TRAITOR OR FRIEND AND CONFIDANTE?

What's behind the newly discovered Gospel of Judas

Approx. 256 pages, 13.8 x 22.0 cm

Hard cover with dust jacket

ISBN 978-3-7766-2509-7