

Many people still think that it's impossible to know anything about life after death. In his new book, Bernhard Jakoby successfully dispels this widespread misconception. Recent reports about near-death experiences and near-death encounters, first-hand accounts of reincarnation as well as media documentaries all contain remarkably consistent descriptions of the afterlife. Jakoby has assembled this data. He describes the various different levels that comprise the afterlife and the stages of spiritual transformation we will all be passing through, providing conclusive proof that there is indeed an afterlife!

→A compilation of the scientific evidence relating to the afterlife: an uplifting, enlightening book by the renowned thanatologist about the meaning of eternal life

Bernhard Jakoby, born in 1957, is considered the leading authority on dying and grieving in the German-speaking world. His lectures and seminars have played a major part in reducing the taboo surrounding death. His best-sellers include »You Too Will Live Forever«, »Life in the Hereafter«, »The Bridge to the Light«, »No Soul is Ever Lost«, »Death: the Big Secret«, »Everything Is Pre-ordained«. The author lives in Berlin.
www.sterbeforschung.de

USPs: →Best-selling author on this subject

Bernhard Jakoby

WE NEVER DIE

What we know about the afterlife today

Approx. 272 pages, 13,8 x 22,0 cm

Hard cover with dust jacket

ISBN 978-3-485-01117-4