

Excerpt from the table of contents

- Kennedy & Habsburg – a peculiar relationship
- "Alma was completely different" – an account by Gustav Mahler's granddaughter
- Who was Aunt Jolesch? – a search for clues
- Does an emperor have any privacy? – the day-to-day life of the Habsburgs
- An impossible family – Romy Schneider's ancestors
- As rich as the Rothschilds – the Viennese branch of a famous dynasty
- Where psychoanalysis ends – the Freud family
- Oskar Kokoschka – son or doppelganger?

Once again, Georg Markus proves his flair for digging up absorbing as well as amusing themes from history. With remarkable tact, he offers the readers profound insights from behind the scenes of famous dynasties, revealing the private lives, the joys and the sorrows of Austria's key figures. With a wealth of previously unpublished stories, the bestselling author documents the rise and fall, the aspirations and fail-ures of home-grown dynasties, the destinies of famous people, whether descended from nobility, artists' families, or humble origins.

Portraits of Austria's famous dynasties

Georg Markus
What They Leave Behind for Us
 An Austrian Family Book

approx. 300 pages with many illustrations 17.3 x 24.5 cm
 hardback with dust jacket
 ISBN 978-3-85002-723-6

Georg Markus, one of Austria's most popular writers and newspaper columnists, lives in Vienna. He has made a name for himself as the author of major biographies, which have been translated into many languages. His books, including Wie die Zeit vergeht (How Time Passes), Unter uns gesagt (Just Between Us), Die Enkel der Tante Jolesch (Aunt Jolesch's Descendants), Adressen mit Geschichte (Homes of the Famous), and Die Hörbigers (A History of the Hörbigers) have all topped Austria's bestseller lists for months. Georg Markus writes a regular column for the daily Der Kurier, entitled Geschichten mit Geschichte (History and Stories).

"It is a source of constant amazement how Georg Markus succeeds in bringing to light ever more fresh and fascinating aspects of history, but equally astonishing is the manner in which he does it: on the one hand, the seriousness of his subject calls for a sober approach, but on the other his books are never less than thoroughly entertaining journeys through time."
 HUGO PORTISCH

"Georg Markus is Austria's highest profile celebrity journalist."
 THE GUARDIAN