

When the grandson of Kao-tai, who penned the famed letters to the Chinese past many years ago, finds out about the incredible »A-taos«, the eleven-year-old wants to see these wild monsters with his own eyes. No sooner said than done. What the curious and alert Hua-Bao experiences over a month in modern-day Munich makes him rejoice, shudder and gasp in turn. Ricarda Dietz has illustrated this wonderful story with stunning pictures and collages.

→ A charming book with unusual illustrations and an original design – for all lovers of the bestselling »Letters Back To Ancient China«.

Julia Rosendorfer / Ricarda Dietz

POST TO THE CHINESE PAST

Approx. 64 pages, 19,3 x 24,5 cm

Hard cover with promotional wrap four colour throughout

ISBN 978-3-7844-3160-4

© privat

Julia Andreae-Rosendorfer is a journalist and well-known writer of children's books. She lives in South Tyrol. Ricarda Dietz is one of the most pre-eminent artists in the area of facade- and ceiling murals. She lives in Munich with her family.

Herbert Rosendorfer
LETTERS BACK TO ANCIENT CHINA
312 pages
ISBN 978-3-485-00730-6

»Letters back to Ancient China« is one of the most successful German novels of the 20th-century with well over 2 million copies sold.

USPs:

→ Herbert Rosendorfer celebrates his 75th birthday on 19th February 2009