

The world is given a last chance – will a period of 712 days be long enough to free the world from greed and hypocrisy? Mara, a psychiatrist is the first one to realize that her patient Joshua who hears voices is not an ordinary patient. She follows his trail and gets caught in a mesh of violence and lies put out by Jonas, Joshua's antagonist. When all over the world the houses of God crumble to dust, she knows that Joshua, the new Messiah, has, at last, followed his calling ...

→ Mysterious messages, collapsing temples, the return of the Messiah – has the end of the world arrived? A dramatic thriller with a breathtaking end
