

In their millions, animal lovers were glued to their screens

when Gudrun Thiele, the popular television personality, presented the show ›You and Your Pet‹ – during the course of ten years, the programme was aired 114 times. The animal magic is still there in her novel A Princess on Four Paws, in which her heroine Krümel describes her everyday life as a cat, and how she got lucky: initially abandoned, she eventually found a paradisiacal home. Krümel describes her worries, be they major or minor, and the friends she has made in her territory. It's a cat's-eye view of the world, full of ups and downs, but one perspective is always consistent: Krümel sees her owner as a giant cat on two legs. And we can't help thinking of Krümel as a very special human being on four paws!
